Schiff
Young (AK)

So the conference report was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said conference report was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof.

¶90.17 TERRORIST BOMBING IN JERUSALEM

On motion of Mr. GILMAN, by unanimous consent, the Committee on International Relations was discharged from further consideration of the following concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 133):

Whereas on July 30, 1997, two terrorist bombs exploded almost simultaneously in the open market in Jerusalem killing at least 13 people and wounding more than 150 others, and

Whereas this attack is a violent and vicious assault against the peace process and against citizens of Israel: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the Congress—

(1) Expresses the deep condolences of the Congress and the American people to the families of the victims and to the people of Israel for the loss of life and the serious injuries that have been suffered in the terrorist bombing in the Jerusalem market and expresses the solidarity of the American people with the people of Israel in the face of this tragic and senseless act;

(2) Reaffirms the determination of the Congress to join with the government of Israel in fighting against international terrorism;

(3) Urges Yassir Arafat and officials of the Palestinian Authority to undertake immediately unequivocal action to bring to justice leaders of terrorist organizations and extremist groups and to eliminate all weapons and explosives in the hands of such groups;

(4) Reaffirms the commitment of the Congress of the United States to the peace process in the Middle East and urges all parties to work together to bring lasting peace and security without violence and terrorism to that region; and

(5) Urges the President and appropriate Executive agencies to provide all appropriate assistance to the government of Israel to provide medical and other assistance to the victims of this terrorist act, to bring to justice the terrorist leaders behind this and similar acts of violence, and to work to prevent such terrorist acts in the future.

When said concurrent resolution was considered.

The question being put, viva voce, Will the House agree to said concurrent resolution?

Thereupon, the SPEAKER announced that 410 Members had been recorded, a quorum.

Further proceedings under the call were dispensed with.

After further debate,

By unanimous consent, the previous question was ordered on the conference report to its adoption or rejection.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said conference report?

The SPEAKER announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. SHAYS demanded a recorded vote on agreeing to said conference report, which demand was supported by one-fifth of a quorum, so a recorded vote was ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.

It was decided in the affirmative { Yeas 346
