¶94.29 MOTION TO INSTRUCT CONFEREES—H.R. 1119

Mr. TRAFICANT submitted the privileged motion to instruct the managers on the part of the House at the conference with the Senate on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the bill (H.R. 1119) to authorize appropriations for fiscal years 1998 and 1999 for military activities of the Department of Defense, to prescribe military personnel strengths for fiscal years 1998 and 1999, and for other purposes, to insist upon the provisions of section 1032 of the House bill (relating to the assignment of Department of Defense personnel to border patrol and control). Pending consideration of said motion,

¶94.30 ORDER OF BUSINESS—POSTPONEMENT OF VOTE ON MOTION TO INSTRUCT CONFEREES

On motion of Mr. TRAFICANT, by unanimous consent,

Ordered, That it may be in order for the House to postpone the request for a recorded vote today on the motion to instruct conferees on the bill H.R. 1119, until Friday, September 5, 1997.

Further pending consideration of said motion,

On demand of Mr. REYES, pursuant to clause 1, rule XXVIII,

Ordered, That time for debate be equally divided among Messrs. SPENCE, TRAFICANT, and REYES.

After debate,

By unanimous consent, the previous question was ordered on the motion to instruct the managers on the part of the House.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said motion?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. LAHOOD, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. REYES demanded a recorded vote on agreeing to said motion.

The SPEAKER pro tempore Mr. LAHOOD, announced that pursuant to the previous order of the House the request for the vote was postponed until Friday, September 5, 1997.

¶94.31 DIANA, PRINCESS OF WALES

On motion of Mr. GILMAN, by unanimous consent, the Committee on International Relations was discharged from further consideration of the following resolution (H. Res. 219):

Whereas the House of Representatives has heard with great sadness of the death of Diana, Princess of Wales, in a tragic automobile accident;

Whereas Diana, Princess of Wales, touched the hearts of the British and American people with her unflagging humanitarian and charitable efforts, her grace, and her good humor;

Whereas Diana, Princess of Wales, was a leader in such causes as the struggles against HIV/AIDS, breast cancer, and homelessness, and in efforts on behalf of the innocent victims of antipersonnel land mines;

Whereas many of the more than 100 humanitarian and charitable causes championed by Diana, Princess of Wales, operated within the United States and involved matters important to the American people; and
