So, two-thirds of the Members present having voted in favor thereof, the rules were suspended and said bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby the rules were suspended and said bill, as amended, was passed was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered, That the Clerk request the concurrence of the Senate in said bill.

¶130.23 H. CON. RES. 22—UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PETRI, pursuant to clause 5, rule I, announced the further unfinished business to be the motion to suspend the rules and agree to concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 22) expressing the sense of the Congress with respect to the discrimination by the German Government against members of minority religious groups, particularly the continued and increasing discrimination by the German Government against performers, entertainers, and other artists from the United States associated with Scientology; as amended.

The question being put,

Will the House suspend the rules and agree said concurrent resolution, as amended?

The vote was taken by electronic device.

It was decided in the negative .....

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PETRI, announced that two-thirds of the Members present had not voted in the affirmative.

So, less than two-thirds of the Members present having voted in favor thereof, the rules were not suspended and said concurrent resolution, as amended, was not agreed to.

¶130.25 H. CON. RES. 139—UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PETRI, pursuant to clause 5, rule I, announced the further unfinished business to be the motion to suspend the rules and agree to concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 139) expressing the sense of Congress that the United States Government should fully participate in EXPO 2000 in the year 2000, in Hanover Germany, and should encourage the academic community and the private sector in the United States to support this worthwhile undertaking; as amended.

The question being put,

Will the House suspend the rules and agree to said concurrent resolution as amended?
