115.39 REPUBLIC OF MOZAMBIQUE

On motion of Mr. GILMAN, by unanimous consent, the Committee on International Relations was discharged from further consideration of the following resolution (H. Res. 610):

Whereas the Republic of Mozambique suffered from armed conflict for 30 years, first against Portuguese colonialism and then a brutal civil war between the FRELIMO government and RENAMO rebels;

Whereas up to one-third of Mozambique’s 17,000,000 people were forced to flee their homes as refugees or internal displaced persons as a result of the civil war;

Whereas the two sides to the civil conflict reached a peace accord in 1992 and democratic elections were held in 1994 with the participation of all major political groups;

Whereas both the government of President Joachim Alberto Chissano and opposition parties have participated positively in Mozambique’s representative democracy;

Whereas both the government and the opposition have made considerable strides in building a force that is representative of the Mozambican people;

Whereas Mozambique has rejected its communist economic policies, embraced free
