

Appointment of Deputy Assistant to the President for Speechwriting and Research

March 9, 1994

The President today named Donald A. Baer, assistant managing editor of U.S. News & World Report and a reporter and former lawyer, to serve as Deputy Assistant to the President for Speechwriting and Research.

“Don Baer is a writer of depth and talent who understands, both from the experience of his life and from his career as a reporter and editor, the challenges that face Americans all across the country in their daily lives,” the President said. “I look forward to Don’s able assistance as we work to communicate my administration’s vision of hope and opportunity to the American people.”

Nomination for United States District Court Judges

March 9, 1994

The President today nominated six individuals to serve on the U.S. District Court. They are: Richard A. Paez for the Central District of California; Clarence Cooper for the Northern District of Georgia; Denise Page Hood for the Eastern District of Michigan; Solomon Oliver, Jr. for the Northern District of Ohio; Terry C. Kern for the Northern District of Oklahoma; and B. Michael Burrage for the Northern, Eastern, and Western Districts of Oklahoma.

“These six individuals have impressive records of achievement in both the law and public service,” the President said today. “I am confident that they will serve with excellence and distinction as members of the Federal judiciary.”

NOTE: Biographies of the nominees were made available by the Office of the Press Secretary.

Remarks at the AmeriCorps Public Safety Forum in New York City

March 10, 1994

The President. Thank you very much, President Lattin, and my good friend Congressman Chuck Schumer. And in a moment you’ll hear from Eli Segal, who is the head of our national service effort, so I won’t introduce him more now. I want to thank all of the members of all the service groups who are here from not only from New York but many from other States, and recognize the chair of the board of the corporation of national service, Mr. Jim Josephs, who came. Thank you for being here, sir. I also want to thank three distinguished New Yorkers for their presence in the audience: your new attorney general, Oliver Koppell; New York City’s public advocate and my longtime friend,

Mr. Mark Green; and the man who first introduced me to the local government of the city of Brooklyn, the Brooklyn borough president, Howard Golden. Thank you.

Before Chuck Schumer sits down, I want to ask him to come back up here to show you: This man has a broken arm, as you can see, and he’s slightly incapacitated. So I asked him if I could join his two children and sign his cast. I do this to make a point I try to make at every speech, which is that government cannot solve all the problems of America. That’s why we need all of you in service. And government cannot solve all these problems, either, because he is not the victim of a crime but
