Nomination for the Federal Trade Commission
October 5, 1994

The President today announced that he has nominated Christine Varney of the District of Columbia as a member of the Federal Trade Commission (FTC).

“I have thoroughly enjoyed working with Christine these past 20 months, and I am delighted to nominate her to the FTC,” the President said. “Her commitment to public service and firsthand experience in the areas of trade and regulation will serve the Commission well. I look forward to her confirmation.”

NOTE: A biography of the nominee was made available by the Office of the Press Secretary.

Nomination for United States District Court Judges
October 5, 1994

The President today nominated three individuals to serve on the U.S. District Court: Lacy H. Thornburg for the Western District of North Carolina; and David Folsom and Thadd Heartfield for the Eastern District of Texas.

“These individuals have records of achievement in public service and the legal profession,” the President said. “I am confident that they will continue to distinguish themselves as members of the Federal judiciary.”

NOTE: Biographies of the nominees were made available by the Office of the Press Secretary.

Remarks at a Reception for the Africa Prize for Leadership for the Sustainable End of Hunger
October 5, 1994

Thank you so very much for that warm welcome. I’ve had a great 2 days; I like being on Nelson Mandela’s coattails.

I was sitting there listening to the Secretary of Commerce introduce me, and it got more and more and more generous. And for a moment, I was almost carried away. Then I remembered what a sterling example that was of Clinton’s third law of politics, which is, whenever possible, be introduced by someone you’ve appointed to high office. [Laughter] I am delighted to be here with President Mandela, Her
