99th Congress

An Act

For the relief of Gerald M. Hendley.

Sept. 25, 1986
[H.R. 1529]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Gerald M. Hendley of Harmons, Maryland—

(1) during the one-year period beginning on the date of enactment of this Act, may present to the appropriate Federal agency, for administrative adjustment in accordance with section 2672 of title 28, United States Code, a claim against the United States for money damages for injuries sustained when the military bus in which he was a passenger overturned on October 19, 1969; and

(2) if such claim is finally denied by such agency (or is deemed to be finally denied), may institute a civil action upon such claim in accordance with section 2675 of such title;

notwithstanding the two-year limitation set forth in section 2401(b) of title 28, United States Code, and notwithstanding any disposition of such claim by an agency or a court before the enactment of this Act to the extent such disposition was determined to have been based on that two-year limitation. The appropriate district court shall, in accordance with section 1346(b) of title 28, United States Code, have jurisdiction of any action brought under paragraph (2) of this section.

SEC. 2. No more than 10 per centum of the amount appropriated in the first section shall be paid to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with the claims dealt with in this Act. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be fined not more than $1,000.

Approved September 25, 1986.
