To amend the Arms Control and Disarmament Act to authorize appropriations for the fiscal years 1988 and 1989 for the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
This Act may be cited as the "Arms Control and Disarmament Amendments Act of 1987".

SEC. 2. AUTHORIZATIONS OF APPROPRIATIONS.
Section 49(a) of the Arms Control and Disarmament Act (22 U.S.C. 2589(a)) is amended to read as follows:

"(a)(1) To carry out the purposes of this Act, there are authorized to be appropriated—

(A) $29,000,000 for the fiscal year 1988 and $29,800,000 for fiscal year 1989; and

(B) such additional amounts as may be necessary for each such fiscal year for increases in salary, pay, retirement, other employee benefits authorized by law, and other nondiscretionary costs, and to offset adverse fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates.

(2) Of the amounts authorized to be appropriated by paragraph (1)(A) for each of the fiscal years 1988 and 1989—

(A) $7,063,000 shall be available only to pay necessary expenses incurred in connection with arms control negotiations conducted with the Government of the Soviet Union on strategic arms reductions, intermediate-range nuclear forces, and space and defensive weapons;

(B) not less than $310,000 shall be available only for the program for visiting scholars in the field of arms control and disarmament established under section 28 of this Act;

(C) $780,000 shall be used for external research to assist the Bureau of Verification and Intelligence in making assessments of possible new systems, devices, and capabilities for verification of arms control;

(D) not more than $1,560,000 may be used for any other external research program; and

(E) a total of not more than $3,000,000 may be used for all external research.

(3) Amounts appropriated under this subsection are authorized to remain available until expended.”.

SEC. 3. STANDING CONSULTATIVE COMMISSION.
(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

(1) the Standing Consultative Commission was established by the United States and the Soviet Union under Article XIII of the Treaty on the Limitation of Anti-Ballistic Missile Systems as a framework for considering and resolving questions concerning compliance with arms control obligations; and

(2) the United States should raise and attempt to resolve issues relating to compliance by the United States and the Soviet Union with arms control agreements in the Standing Consultative Commission.

(b) ANNUAL REPORTS.—Title III of the Arms Control and Disarmament Act (22 U.S.C. 2571-2577) is amended by adding at the end the following:

"SEC. 38. REPORTS ON STANDING CONSULTATIVE COMMISSION ACTIVITIES."

"The President shall submit, not later than January 31 of each year, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate a report prepared by the United States Commissioner on the activities of the United States-Union of Soviet Socialist Republics Standing Consultative Commission established under Article XIII of the Treaty on the Limitation of Anti-Ballistic Missile Systems. In preparing this report, the Commissioner should consult with former United States Commissioners and other experts. Such annual report shall include detailed information on all substantive issues raised by either party to the Treaty and the response of the other party with regard to such issues. Such annual report shall be transmitted under an injunction of secrecy, but shall be accompanied by an unclassified addendum containing such information with respect to the activities of the Commission as can be made public consistent with the need for confidentiality of Commission proceedings and the national security of the United States."

(c) STUDY AND REPORT.—The Director of the United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency shall conduct a study to determine how the Standing Consultative Commission could be used more effectively to resolve arms control compliance issues. The Director shall report the results of this study to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate within 6 months after the date of enactment of this Act.

SEC. 4. COMPREHENSIVE COMPILATION OF ARMS CONTROL AND DISARMAMENT STUDIES.

Title III of the Arms Control and Disarmament Act, as amended by section 3(b) of this Act, is further amended by adding at the end the following:

"SEC. 39. COMPREHENSIVE COMPILATION OF ARMS CONTROL AND DISARMAMENT STUDIES."

"Pursuant to his responsibilities under section 31 of this Act, and in order to enhance Congressional and public understanding of arms control and disarmament issues, the Director shall provide to the Congress not later than June 30 of each year a report setting forth—

"(1) a comprehensive list of studies relating to arms control and disarmament issues concluded during the previous calendar year by government agencies or for government agencies by private or public institutions or persons; and

"(2) a brief description of each such study.

This report shall be unclassified, with a classified addendum if necessary."
SEC. 5. COMPLIANCE REPORTS.

Section 52 of the Arms Control and Disarmament Act (22 U.S.C. 2591) is amended—

(1) in paragraph (1)—
   (A) by inserting "the Soviet Union, and other nations" after "adherence of the United States"; and
   (B) by inserting "the Soviet Union and" after "compliance by"; and
(2) by striking out "and" at the end of paragraph (2) and by redesignating paragraph (3) as paragraph (5);
(3) by inserting the following after paragraph (2):
"(3) the section of the report dealing with Soviet adherence shall include information on actions taken by the Soviet Union with regard to the size, structure, and disposition of its military forces in order to comply with arms control agreements;"
"(4) the section of the report dealing with adherence by other nations shall include information on actions taken by each such nation with regard to the size, structure, and disposition of its military forces in order to comply with arms control agreements; and";
and
(4) in paragraph (5), as so redesignated by this section, by inserting "the Soviet Union and" after "problems of compliance by".

SEC. 6. ACDA INSPECTOR GENERAL.

(a) Establishment.—Title IV of the Arms Control and Disarmament Act (22 U.S.C. 2581-2591) is amended by adding at the end the following:

(SEC. 53. ACDA INSPECTOR GENERAL.

"(a) Establishment and Duties.—There shall be an Office of the Inspector General at the Agency headed by the Inspector General of the Agency who shall have the duties, responsibilities, and authorities specified in the Inspector General Act of 1978.

"(b) Duality of Appointment.—An individual appointed to the position of Inspector General of the Department of State shall, by virtue of such appointment, also hold the position of Inspector General of the Agency.

"(c) Utilization of Staff.—The Inspector General of the Agency shall utilize personnel of the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of State in performing the duties of the Inspector General of the Agency, and shall not appoint any individuals to positions within the Agency.

"(d) References.—For purposes of this section, references in the Inspector General Act of 1978 to the establishment involved, to the head of the establishment, and to an Inspector General shall be deemed to be references to the Agency, the Director of the Agency, and Inspector General of the Agency, respectively, except to the extent inconsistent with this section."

(b) Survey of ACDA Classified Information Security.—Not later than 90 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Inspector General of the United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency—

(1) shall conduct a survey of physical, personnel, document, and communications security programs, procedures, and practices at the Agency for the protection of classified information; and
(2) shall submit a report on the results of that survey, together with such recommendations for improvement of classified information security at the Agency as the Inspector General considers appropriate, to the Director of the Agency and to the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate.

Approved December 24, 1987.
