HADASSAH—SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY
COMMEMORATION

Feb. 26, 1987
[H. Con. Res. 46]

Whereas, Hadassah, the Women’s Zionist Organization of America, numbering over three hundred and eighty-five thousand volunteers, has for seventy-five years promoted a two-fold program of education for its members and their families to the highest ideals of Judaic and American democratic values, and participation in the rebuilding of a Jewish homeland in Israel;

Whereas, Hadassah, the Women’s Zionist Organization of America, has built and maintains Hadassah Medical Organization, located in Jerusalem, Israel, which includes a primary care hospital dedicated to healing, teaching and research, where all who are in need are treated regardless of race or creed, thereby building bridges of peace and understanding to all the peoples of the Middle East;

Whereas, Hadassah Medical Organization has reached out to many countries in Africa and Asia, offering assistance and technical expertise, as well as educating the future doctors of these countries at the Hadassah Hebrew University Medical School;

Whereas, Hadassah supports a wide range of youth programs in the United States, including Young Judaea and Hamagshimim, as well as special programs in Israel, such as the Youth Aliyah, a
