the Commission on the United States House of Representatives Bicentenary, with the editorial assistance of the Historian of the House of Representatives) shall be printed as a House document, with illustrations and suitable binding. In addition to the usual number, two thousand copies of such document shall be printed for the use of the Office for the Bicentennial of the House of Representatives.

MILITARY AID TO NICARAGUA AND IRAN—JOINT REPORT

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the House Select Committee to Investigate Covert Arms Transactions with Iran, and the Senate Select Committee on Secret Military Assistance to Iran and the Nicaraguan Opposition are authorized to file and print their reports as a joint report of more than one volume with necessary appendices. Following the filing of the report, the accompanying appendices will be filed for printing within thirty days.

Sec. 2. (a) The joint report shall be numbered as a House report and as a Senate report, and organized as provided in this section.

(b) The first volume of the joint report shall contain a summary of facts, descriptive matter, findings, conclusions, and recommendations, including supplemental, minority, and additional views. In addition to the usual number, nine thousand copies of such volume shall be printed for the use of the House select committee and nine thousand copies of such volume shall be printed for the use of the Senate select committee.

(c) The remaining volumes of the joint report shall be appendices. In addition to the usual number, one thousand copies of each appendix shall be printed for the use of the House select committee, and one thousand copies of each appendix shall be printed for the use of the Senate select committee.

(d) The joint report shall be printed in the style and form directed by the chairman of the House select committee and the chairman of the Senate select committee, acting jointly and in consultation with the ranking minority party member of the House select committee and the vice-chairman of the Senate select committee.

Sec. 3. The Superintendent of Documents shall make additional copies of the joint report available for purchase at not less than cost (as determined by the Public Printer).

ADJOURNMENT—HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That when the House adjourns on Tuesday, November 10, 1987, it stand adjourned until 12 o'clock meridian on Monday, November 16, 1987.