

Private Law 100-15
100th Congress

An Act

For the relief of Marsha D. Christopher.

May 30, 1988
[H.R. 1386]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of section 8131 and 8132 of title 5, United States Code, shall not apply with respect to injuries incurred by Marsha D. Christopher of Romulus, Michigan, as a result of an attack by a dog on August 9, 1979, while Marsha D. Christopher was performing her duties as a letter carrier for the United States Postal Service.

SEC. 2. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury shall pay, out of any funds in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Marsha D. Christopher, an amount equal to the sum of—

(1) any amount of compensation for the injuries referred to in the first section of this Act, refunded, under section 8132 of title 5, United States Code, to the United States by Marsha D. Christopher, or on her behalf, before the date of the enactment of this Act; and

(2) any amount of reduction in compensation payable to Marsha D. Christopher under chapter 81 of title 5, United States Code, for the injuries referred to in the first section of this Act, made under section 8132 of such title before the date of the enactment of this Act.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any amount of the payment referred to in subsection (a) to be paid to, delivered to, or received by any agent or attorney in consideration for services rendered in connection with such payment. Any person who violates this subsection shall not be fined more than $1,000.

Approved May 30, 1988.

Private Law 100-16
100th Congress

An Act

To remove the right of reversion to the United States in lands owned by the Shriners Hospitals for Crippled Children on lands formerly owned by the United States in Salt Lake County, Utah.

Aug. 17, 1988
[S. 892]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) notwithstanding any provision of the Act of March 14, 1946 (60 Stat. 55, Chapter 91), or any other provision of law, the Administrator of the General Services Administration, subject to receipt of the payment described in subsection (b), is authorized and directed to release by quitclaim deed to Shriners Hospitals for Crippled Children, a Colorado corporation, on behalf of the United States, any and all right of reversion held by the United States in and to the lands which were formerly owned by the United States in Salt Lake County, Utah, and which were transferred pursuant to said Act.

Colorado.
