VOLUNTEER WORKERS—EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Whereas individuals engaged in volunteer work are estimated to provide more than $65,000,000,000 in services to the people and communities of the United States each year, in addition to services provided in foreign countries through the activities of the Peace Corps and similar efforts;

Whereas volunteer work provides opportunities to every citizen for personal growth, career exploration, and civic contribution;

Whereas the Federal Government, State, and local governments, and charitable and service organizations increasingly recognize the value of individuals engaged in volunteer work in connection with the development and operation of programs to meet the needs of American citizens;

Whereas the number of individuals engaging in volunteer work and the variety of services provided through work increase each year; and

Whereas the United States Office of Personnel Management, together with a limited number of State and local government, charitable and service organizations, and private employers, has provided for a listing and description of relevant volunteer work on employment application forms: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that experience in volunteer work should be taken into account by the Federal Government, State, and local governments, charitable and service organizations and private employers in the consideration of applicants for employment, and that provision should be made for a listing and description of volunteer work on employment application forms.

Agreed to August 11, 1988.
