

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That, as part of the observance of the 500th anniversary of the discovery of America, there shall be prepared a volume describing works of art honoring Christopher Columbus, as displayed, both permanently and in special exhibits, in the Capitol and at other locations within the Capitol grounds. The volume shall—

- (1) be entitled "Columbus in the Capitol";
- (2) contain descriptions and illustrations of such works of art; and
- (3) be prepared under the direction of the Joint Committee on Printing, with the assistance of the Office of the Architect of the Capitol and such other congressional entities as the Joint Committee may require.

SEC. 2. During the year 1992, the Architect of the Capitol shall carry out a program of special exhibits of works of art honoring Christopher Columbus.

Agreed to April 4, 1990.

BAHA'I FAITH—IRANIAN PERSECUTION

May 15, 1990
[H. Con. Res. 87]

Whereas in 1982, 1984, and 1988, the Congress, by concurrent resolution, declared that it holds the Government of Iran responsible for upholding the rights of all its nationals, including members of the Baha'i Faith, Iran's largest religious minority;

Whereas in such resolutions and in numerous other appeals, the Congress condemned the Iranian Government's persecution of
