Joint Resolution

Sept. 25, 1990

[S.J. Res. 313]

Designating October 3, 1990, as "National Teacher Appreciation Day".

Whereas education of the Nation's youth is the foundation of the Nation's future;

Whereas education is a lifelong process which is beneficial to the individual and thus beneficial to the entire Nation;

Whereas teachers deserve credit for their invaluable role in providing education;

Whereas teaching not only involves traditional areas of education, but today also includes vocational education, continuing education, and education for special needs;

Whereas teachers contribute not only to the academic growth of students, but also to their ethical, social, and emotional development;

Whereas a student's respect for his or her teacher is essential to the student's ability to learn; and

Whereas the contributions of teachers should be celebrated often in order to honor the role of teachers in society and to affirm and foster respect for teachers: Now, therefore, be it
