

of Iraqi citizens because of his continued intransigence in not cooperating with United Nations Security Council Resolutions, his refusal to allow equitable distribution of food and medicines, and his obstruction of the delivery of humanitarian assistance by the United Nations and private relief agencies; and

Whereas the condition of Iraqi children is an international humanitarian concern that must be addressed immediately: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the Congress—

(1) condemns Saddam Hussein for refusing to comply with United Nations Security Council Resolutions 706 and 712, preventing an equitable distribution of food and medicine to the Iraqi people, and blocking the delivery of humanitarian assistance by the United Nations and private relief agencies;

(2) commends the President and the United Nations Security Council for their efforts to address humanitarian concerns in Iraq through United Nations Security Council Resolutions 706 and 712 and supports their continued effort to gain Iraqi compliance with these resolutions; and

(3) urges the President, consistent with United Nations Security Council Resolutions 706 and 712, to explore alternatives under the auspices of the United Nations to utilize and mobilize resources necessary to get an adequate supply of food and medicine to the vulnerable populations of Iraq, especially children.
