SEC. 107. GENERAL WAIVER OF PROCUREMENT REGULATIONS.

No provision of law governing procurement or public contracts shall be applicable to the procurement of goods or services necessary for carrying out the provisions of this title. Nothing in this section shall relieve any person entering into a contract under the authority of this title from complying with any law relating to equal employment opportunity.

SEC. 108. DISTRIBUTION OF SURCHARGES.

The total surcharges received by the Secretary from the sale of the coins issued under this title shall be promptly paid by the Secretary to The White House Endowment Fund (The Fund) to assist The Fund’s efforts to raise an endowment to be a permanent source of support for the White House Collection of fine art and historic furnishings, and for the maintenance of the historic public rooms of the White House.

SEC. 109. AUDITS.

The Comptroller General shall have the right to examine such books, records, documents, and other data of The Fund as may be related to the expenditure of amounts paid under section 108.

SEC. 110. COINAGE PROFIT FUND.

Notwithstanding any provision of law—
(1) all amounts received from the sale of coins issued under this title shall be deposited in the coinage profit fund;
(2) the Secretary shall pay the amounts authorized under this title from the coinage profit fund to The White House Endowment Fund; and
(3) the Secretary shall charge the coinage profit fund with all expenditures under this title.

SEC. 111. FINANCIAL ASSURANCES.

(a) The Secretary shall take such actions as may be necessary to ensure that the minting and issuance of the coins referred to in section 102 shall not result in any net cost to the Federal Government.

(b) No coin shall be issued under this title unless the Secretary has received—
(1) full payment for such coin;
(2) security satisfactory to the Secretary to indemnify the United States for full payment; or
(3) a guarantee of full payment satisfactory to the Secretary from a depository institution whose deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or the National Credit Union Administration.

(b) TERM.—Fellowships shall be granted for such periods as the Foundation may prescribe but not to exceed 2 years.

(c) SELECTION.—The Foundation may provide, directly or by contract, for the conduct of a nationwide competition for the selection of fellowship recipients.

SEC. 425. STIPENDS.

Each person awarded a fellowship under this subtitle shall receive a stipend as determined by the Foundation.

SEC. 426. CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS FELLOWSHIP FUND.

(a) IN GENERAL.—There is established in the Treasury a fund to be known as the Christopher Columbus Scholarship Fund (hereafter in this subtitle referred to as the “fund”), which shall consist of—

(1) amounts deposited under subsection (d);
(2) obligations obtained under subsection (c);
(3) amounts contributed to the Foundation; and
(4) all surcharges received by the Secretary of the Treasury from the sale of coins minted under the Christopher Columbus Quincentenary Coin Act.

(b) INVESTMENTS.—

(1) DUTY OF SECRETARY TO INVEST.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall invest in full any amount appropriated or contributed to the fund.

(2) AUTHORIZED INVESTMENTS.—Investments pursuant to paragraph (1) may be made only in interest-bearing obligations of the United States or in obligations guaranteed as to both principal and interest by the United States. For such purpose, such obligations may be acquired—

(A) on original issue at the issue price; or
(B) by purchase of outstanding obligations at the market price.

(3) SPECIAL OBLIGATIONS.—The purposes for which obligations of the United States may be issued under chapter 31 of title 31, United States Code, are hereby extended to authorize the issuance at par of special obligations exclusively to the fund. Such special obligations shall bear interest at a rate equal to the average rate of interest, computed as to the end of the calendar month preceding the date of such issue, borne by all marketable interest-bearing obligations of the United States then forming a part of the public debt; except that, if such average rate is not a multiple of \( \frac{1}{2} \) of 1 percent, the rate of interest of such special obligations shall be the multiple of \( \frac{1}{2} \) of 1 percent next lower than such average rate. Such special obligations shall be issued only if the Secretary determines that the purchase of other obligations of the United States, or of obligations guaranteed as to both principal and interest by the United States or original issue at the market price, is not in the public interest.

(c) SALE OF OBLIGATIONS.—Any obligations acquired by the fund (except special obligations issued exclusively to the fund in accordance with subsection (b)(3)) may be sold by the Secretary at the market price, and such special obligations may be redeemed at par plus accrued interest.

(d) INTEREST.—The interest on, and the proceeds from, the sale or redemption of any obligations held in the fund shall be credited to and form a part of the fund.

(e) AVAILABILITY OF FUND.—

(1) STIPENDS.—The fund shall be available to the Foundation for payment of stipends awarded under section 425.

(2) EXPENSES.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to pay to the Foundation from the interest and earnings of the funds such sums as the Board determines are necessary and appropriate to enable the Foundation to carry out the provisions of this subtitle.

(f) DISBURSEMENTS.—Disbursements from the fund shall be made on vouchers approved by the Foundation and signed by the Chairman.

SEC. 427. AUDITS.

The activities of the Foundation under this subtitle may be audited by the Comptroller General of the United States. The Comptroller General shall have access to all books, accounts, records, reports, and files and all other papers, things, or property belonging to or in use by the Foundation, pertaining to such activities and necessary to facilitate the audit.

SEC. 428. EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF FOUNDATION.

(a) DUTIES.—There shall be an Executive Secretary of the Foundation who shall be appointed by the Board. The Executive Secretary shall be the chief executive officer of the Foundation and shall carry out the functions of the Foundation subject to the supervision and direction of the Board.

(b) COMPENSATION.—The Executive Secretary of the Foundation shall be compensated at an annual rate of basic pay not in excess of the amount payable for Executive Level V.

SEC. 429. ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS.

(a) The Foundation may—

(1) appoint and fix the compensation of such personnel as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this subtitle, except that in no case shall employees (other than the Executive Secretary) be compensated at a rate in excess of the rate of basic pay payable for GS-15 of the General Schedule;

(2) procure temporary and intermittent services of such experts and consultants as are necessary to the extent authorized by section 3109 of title 5, but at rates not in excess of the rate of basic pay payable for Executive Level V;

(3) prescribe such regulations as the Foundation may determine to be necessary governing the manner in which its functions shall be carried out;

(4) receive money and other property donated, bequeathed, or devised, without condition or restriction other than it be used for the purposes of the Foundation; and to use, sell, or otherwise dispose of such property for the purpose of carrying out its functions;

(5) accept and utilize the services of voluntary and uncompensated personnel and reimburse them for travel expenses, including per diem, as authorized by section 5703 of title 5, United States Code;
(6) enter into contracts, grants, or other arrangements, or modifications thereof, to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and such contracts or modifications thereof may, with the concurrence of two-thirds of the members of the Board, be entered into without performance or other bonds, and without regard to section 3709 of the Revised Statutes;
(7) make advances, progress, and other payments which the Board deems necessary under this chapter without regard to the provisions of section 529 of title 31, United States Code;
(8) rent office space;
(9) conduct programs in addition to or in conjunction with the Fellowship program which shall further the Foundation's purpose of encouraging new discoveries in all fields of endeavor for the benefit of mankind; and
(10) to make other necessary expenditures.
(b) ANNUAL REPORT.—The Foundation shall submit to the President and to the Congress an annual report of its operations under this subtitle.
