CHAPTER 98

AN ACT

To confer jurisdiction upon the United States District Court for the District of New Mexico to hear, determine, and render judgment upon the claim of Al Parker.

May 18, 1951
[H. R. 656]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding any limitation upon the United States district courts to hear, determine, and render judgment upon tort claims against the United States which accrue prior to January 1, 1945, the jurisdiction conferred upon the United States District Court for the District of New Mexico by subsection (b) of section 1346, title 28, United States Code, is hereby extended to a civil action, which may be commenced not later than one year after the enactment of this Act, asserting any claim or claims of Al Parker, of El Paso, Texas, against the United States for money damages arising out of damage sustained by him as a result of the operation and use by the United States Army of certain land in Dona Ana County, New Mexico, as an anti-aircraft artillery practice firing range. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, all provisions of law applicable in and to such subsection, and applicable to judgments therein and appeals therefrom, are hereby made equally applicable in respect of the civil action authorized by this Act: Provided, however, That nothing in this Act does or shall constitute an admission of liability on the part of the Government of the United States of America.

Al Parker.
