CHAPTER 789

AN ACT

For the relief of Sadako Ishiguro.

July 15, 1952
[S. 2662]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of the immigration laws relating to the exclusion of aliens inadmissible because of race shall not hereafter apply to Sadako Ishiguro, the Japanese fiancée of Quentin C. Auerswald, a citizen of the United States who has been honorably discharged from the United States Navy, and that the said Sadako Ishiguro shall be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of 3 months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Sadako Ishiguro is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to the said Quentin C. Auerswald, and that she is found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. In the event the marriage between the above-named parties does not occur within 3 months after the entry of the said Sadako Ishiguro, she shall be required to depart from the United States, and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended (U. S. C. title 8, sections 155 and 156). In the event that the marriage between the above-named parties shall occur within 3 months after the entry of the said Sadako Ishiguro, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of the said Sadako Ishiguro as of the date of the payment by her of the required visa fee and head tax.
