AN ACT

For the relief of Truman W. McCullough.

Truman W. McCullough.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated to Truman W. McCullough, of Colorado Springs, Colorado, the sum of $5,000 in full satisfaction of all claims of the said Truman W. McCullough against the United States for compensation for the death of his minor son, Harley Beryl McCullough, who died as a result of burns sustained while fighting a forest fire as a volunteer fire fighter, at Camp Carson, Colorado, on January 17, 1950: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved April 10, 1952.
