AN ACT
To authorize the employment in a civilian position in the Office of the Secretary of Defense of Lieutenant General Graves Blanchard Erskine, upon retirement from the United States Marine Corps, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That notwithstanding the proviso under the heading “Retired Pay” in title II of the Department of Defense Appropriation Act, 1953 (66 Stat. 517, 518), Lieutenant General Graves Blanchard Erskine, United States Marine Corps, upon his voluntary retirement from the United States Marine Corps shall be entitled to receive retired pay, as otherwise provided by law, from any funds available for the retired pay of officers on the retired list of the Marine Corps.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 2 of the Act of July 31, 1894 (28 Stat. 205), as amended (5 U. S. C. 62), Lieutenant General Graves Blanchard Erskine, upon his retirement from the United States Marine Corps, may be appointed to a civilian position in the Office of the Secretary of Defense. The appointment shall be made subject to applicable civil-service laws and regulations, including the Classification Act of 1949, as amended. Lieutenant General Erskine’s appointment to and acceptance of, the civilian position in the Office of the Secretary of Defense shall in no way affect any status, office, rank, or grade he may occupy or hold as a retired officer in the United States Marine Corps, or any emolument, perquisite, right, privilege, or benefit incident to or arising out of any such status, office, rank, or grade. So long as he holds a civilian position in the Office of the Secretary of Defense he shall receive the compensation of that position under the Classification Act of 1949, as amended, in lieu of retired pay to which he would be entitled as a retired officer of the United States Marine Corps.

Approved July 17, 1953.
