Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, for the purposes of sections 101(a)(27)(A) and 205 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, the minor child, Eveline Brigitte Bartl (Eveline B. Hermann), shall be held and considered to be the natural-born alien child of Sergeant Edwin C. Herman, Junior, a citizen of the United States.

Approved August 14, 1953.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, for sixty days after the date of enactment of this Act, the United States Government life insurance (K855097) issued, in the amount of $5,000, to Harry Clay Maull, Junior, shall be held and considered to be in full force and effect for the purpose of renewing such insurance. The Administrator of Veterans' Affairs is authorized and directed to renew such insurance (in the same manner and to the same extent that such insurance could have been renewed prior to August 1, 1948), if the said Harry Clay Maull, Junior, within sixty days after the date of enactment of this Act, files an application requesting such renewal and tenders the appropriate premiums therefor.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the conveyances hereinafter particularly described and heretofore executed by Central Pacific Railway Company, a corporation, and its lessee, Southern Pacific Company, a corporation, involving certain portions of right-of-way, in the county of Alameda, State of California, acquired by Central Pacific Railway Company under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1862 (12 Stat. L. 489), as amended by the Act of Congress approved July 2, 1864 (13 Stat. L. 356),

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the conveyances hereinafter particularly described and heretofore executed by Central Pacific Railway Company, a corporation, and its lessee, Southern Pacific Company, a corporation, involving certain lands or interest therein, in the county of Alameda, State of California, and forming a part of the right-of-way of said Central Pacific Railway Company, granted by the Government of the United States of America by an Act of Congress, approved July 1, 1862 (12 Stat. L. 489), as amended by the Act of Congress approved July 2, 1864 (13 Stat. L. 356), the Missouri River to the Pacific Ocean and to secure to the Government the use of the same for postal, military, and other purposes, approved July 1, 1862" (13 Stat. L. 356), are hereby legalized, validated, and confirmed, as far as the interest of the United States is concerned, with the same force and effect as if the land involved therein had been held at the time of such conveyances by the corporations making the same under absolute fee-simple title.

The conveyances recorded at the office of the county recorder of Alameda County, California, in books of official records, which are hereby legalized, validated, and confirmed are as follows:

3. Deed dated December 7, 1943, between Central Pacific Railway Company, a corporation, and its lessee, Southern Pacific Company, a corporation, to Edna S. Overacker, a widow, recorded January 4, 1944, in liber 4437, page 470, official records: Provided, That such legalization, validation, and confirmation shall not in any instance diminish said right-of-way to a width less than fifty feet on either side of the center of the main track or tracks of the said Central Pacific Railway Company as now established and maintained: Provided further, That nothing herein contained is intended to or shall be construed to legalize, validate, or confirm any rights, titles, or interests, based upon or arising out of adverse possession, prescription or abandonment, and not confirmed by conveyances heretofore made by Central Pacific Railway Company and its lessee, Southern Pacific Company: And provided further, That there shall be reserved to the United States all oil, coal, or other mineral in the land, and the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same under the applicable mineral land laws.

Approved August 15, 1953.
