WHEREAS this valiant Pole, having attained the rank of Brigadier General in the Continental Army, gave his life for the American cause on October 11, 1779, thus becoming one of the immortals in our history; and
WHEREAS the American people, generation after generation, have remembered and cherished the gallant deeds of General Pulaski, who made a heroic contribution to the winning of the freedom we hold so dear:
NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby set aside Saturday, October 11, 1952, the one hundred and seventy-third anniversary of his death, as General Pulaski's Memorial Day, and I invite the people of this Nation to observe the day with ceremonies designed to render homage to this Polish patriot who fought under freedom's banner. I also direct that the flag of the United States be displayed on all Government buildings on October 11 in honor of his memory.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.
DONE at the City of Washington this 18th day of September in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-two, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-seventh.

SUPPLEMENTARY TRADE AGREEMENT: VENEZUELA

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, pursuant to section 350 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended and extended (ch. 474, 48 Stat. 943; ch. 118, 57 Stat. 125; ch. 269, 59 Stat. 410; ch. 585, 63 Stat. 697; Public Law 50, 82d Congress), on August 28, 1952 I entered into a supplementary trade agreement, through my duly empowered Plenipotentiary, with the Junta of Government of the United States of Venezuela, through its duly empowered Plenipotentiary, the said supplementary agreement to become effective on and after the thirtieth day following the exchange of my proclamation and the instrument of ratification of the Government of the United States of Venezuela, as provided for in Article 13 of the said supplementary agreement;
AND WHEREAS I proclaimed the said supplementary agreement on September 10, 1952 and my proclamation and the instrument of ratification of the Government of the United States of Venezuela were duly exchanged at the city of Washington on September 11, 1952;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN THAT I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, supplementing my said proclamation of September 10, 1952, do hereby make known and proclaim that the said supplementary agreement, signed on August 28, 1952, will come into force on October 11, 1952.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the city of Washington this 19th day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred seventy-seventh.

COLUMBUS DAY, 1952

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS Christopher Columbus, after sailing many weeks on a vast and unknown sea, found a western continent and a new world on October 12, 1492; and

WHEREAS the daring and resolution of this man of destiny have encouraged in every generation the perseverance of those who seek the truth beyond the horizon; and

WHEREAS the Congress of the United States, mindful of the rich heritage left us by Christopher Columbus, provided, by a resolution approved on April 30, 1934 (48 Stat. 657), that the anniversary of his epochal discovery should be commemorated each year:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Sunday, October 12, 1952, as Columbus Day, and I invite the people of the United States to observe the day with appropriate ceremonies in their homes, their schools, and their churches, or in other suitable places. I direct the officials of the Government to arrange for the display of the flag of the United States on all public buildings on October 12 in honor of the man whose discovery gave democracy a new birthplace.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 25th day of September in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-two and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-seventh.
