

WHEREAS renewed acts of aggression have stressed the need for a spiritual rededication to the ideal of lasting peace, which seemed close to fulfillment on Armistice Day in 1918:

Armistice Day,
1952.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby call upon the people of the Nation to observe Tuesday, November 11, 1952, by commemorating the heroic sacrifices made by our fellow countrymen across the seas, and I urge all our citizens to devote themselves anew on that day to the task of promoting a permanent peace among all the people of the earth. I also direct the appropriate officials of the Government to arrange for the display of the flag of the United States on all public buildings on Armistice Day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 24th day of October in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-two, and of [SEAL] the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-seventh.

HARRY S TRUMAN

THANKSGIVING DAY, 1952

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

November 8, 1952
 [No. 2996]

A PROCLAMATION

In the cycle of the seasons, another year marked by the abundance of God's gifts is nearing its end. At such a time we are wont to turn to Him and with humble hearts to offer thanks as a Nation for His manifold blessings.

We are moved by the inspiring autumnal beauty of our land, which uplifts the hearts of men. We are thankful for the natural and human resources which have enabled us not only to enjoy high material and spiritual standards ourselves but also to help others in the effort to achieve or protect their well-being.

We are grateful for the privileges and rights inherent in our way of life, and in particular for the basic freedoms, which our citizens can
