PROCLAMATIONS—APR. 23, 1953 [67 STAT.

WHEREAS it is the policy of this Government to foster mutual understanding and friendship among nations; and

WHEREAS world trade, freely conducted by private enterprise, increases material well-being and develops friendly intercourse among free peoples; and

WHEREAS international trade among the nations of the free world adds to the economic strength upon which their common defense is based; and

WHEREAS increased international exchange of goods, services, and capital promotes better economic utilization of the world's resources and higher standards of living; and

WHEREAS expanded world trade advances the ideal of unity among all mankind and strengthens the foundation for lasting peace and prosperity:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim the week beginning May 17, 1953, as World Trade Week; and I request the appropriate officials of the Federal Government and of the several States, Territories, possessions, and municipalities of the United States to cooperate in the observance of that week.

I also urge business, labor, agricultural, educational, and civic groups, as well as the people of the United States generally, to observe World Trade Week with gatherings, discussions, exhibits, ceremonies, and other appropriate activities.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.
DONE at the City of Washington this twenty third day of April in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-seventh.

MOTHER'S DAY, 1953

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA [No. 3013]

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS it is our national custom, hallowed by long observance, to devote one day each year especially to honoring our mothers and expressing our appreciation of their steadfast faith and idealism, which have helped to make our country strong and great; and
WHEREAS the Congress, by a joint resolution approved May 8, 1914, 38 Stat. 770, gave official sanction to this annual observance by designating the second Sunday in May of each year as Mother's Day, and requesting the President to issue a proclamation calling for the celebration of the day:
NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do hereby request that Sunday, May 10, 1953, be observed as Mother's Day; and I direct the appropriate officials of the Government to arrange for the display of the flag of the United States on all public buildings on that day.
I also call upon the people of the Nation generally to give public and private expression to the reverence we all feel for motherhood, through the display of the flag at their homes or other suitable places on the appointed day, through prayers at their places of worship, and through renewed devotion to those high ideals which our mothers have instilled into our hearts.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.
DONE at the City of Washington this first day of May in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-seventh.

DWIGHT D EISENHOWER.
