AID TO KOREA WEEK, 1953

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

June 6, 1953
[No. 3018]

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the civilian population of the Republic of Korea has suffered crushing hardships as a result of the brutal attack launched against that Republic in June 1950; and

WHEREAS private relief agencies have done magnificent work in lessening the privations and afflictions of civilians in Korea, and yet these agencies need still greater support than they have thus far received; and

WHEREAS the Congress, by a joint resolution approved on June 6, 1953, has requested the President of the United States to officially set aside the week beginning June 7, 1953, as a period in which the American people may demonstrate their friendship and affection for the distressed people of the Republic of Korea:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do hereby officially proclaim the week of June 7-14, 1953, as "Aid to Korea Week"; and, as a practical demonstration of our friendship and sympathy for the people of the Republic of Korea, I call upon those of our people who have not yet contributed to this cause to make generous contributions to it during that Week, and I urge those who can increase their past contributions to do so, to the end that the private relief agencies may be enabled to help more effectively in the monumental task of rehabilitating the millions of injured, destitute, and homeless Koreans.
