AN ACT

To authorize the conveyance to the State of Texas of approximately nine acres of land in Houston, Texas, to be used for National Guard purposes.

August 30, 1954
[S. 3822]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Army is authorized and directed to convey to the State of Texas, without compensation therefor, all the right, title, and interest of the United States in and to approximately nine and three-tenths acres of land in Houston, Harris County, Texas, and all improvements thereon, said property comprising that portion of the former Hughes Strut Plant now being occupied by the Texas National Guard under a license issued by the Secretary of the Army.

Houston, Tex.
Conveyance.

SEC. 2. The deed of conveyance authorized under the provisions of this Act shall—

Reservations and conditions.

(1) provide that the property conveyed shall not be alienated in whole or in part by the State of Texas and shall be used primarily for training National Guard and Air National Guard personnel and for other military purposes, and if such provision is violated title to such property (including all improvements by the State of Texas) shall revert to the United States;

(2) reserve to the United States all minerals (including oil and gas) in the lands conveyed;

(3) provide that during any state of war or national emergency and for six months thereafter, if the Secretary of Defense determines that the property conveyed is useful or necessary for national defense purposes, the United States may, without payment therefor, reenter such property and use all or any part of it (including improvements by the State of Texas) but upon the termination of such use such property shall revert to the State of Texas; and

(4) contain such additional terms, conditions, reservations, and restrictions as may be determined by the Secretary of the Army to be necessary to protect the interests of the United States.
