For the relief of Curtis W. Strong.

Curtis W. Strong.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Curtis W. Strong, a sum sufficient, not to exceed $4,607, to indemnify said Curtis W. Strong for losses incurred because of an operation performed on June 10, 1918, at the United States Army Field Hospital, at Toul, France, in which two rubber drainage tubes were permitted to remain in the left chest of Curtis W. Strong, this operation being performed because of a wound sustained in action on June 5, 1918, in Belleau Wood, France. As a result of this error on the part of the Army doctors, Curtis W. Strong was unable to work as a letter carrier between May 29, 1944, and June 1, 1951. The payment of the sums specified heretofore shall be in full settlement of his claim for loss of pay due to the negligence of the United States Army doctors: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
