

acquaint the public with the action which is needed to combat this tragic illness; and

WHEREAS the work of these organizations and the mental-health funds which they are raising through public subscription are deserving of generous support by all of us; and

WHEREAS the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare is actively engaged in programs of research, training, and rehabilitation, and other activities designed to strengthen the attack on mental illness; and

WHEREAS Senate Joint Resolution 130 of the 83d Congress, 2nd Session, approved April 27, 1954, requests the President of the United States to issue a proclamation designating the week beginning May 2 and ending May 8, 1954, as National Mental Health Week:

Ante, p. 63.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate the week beginning Sunday, May 2 and ending Saturday, May 8, 1954, as National Mental Health Week. I also urge the people throughout the Nation to cooperate in the work now being done to build sound mental health and to strengthen our forces against mental illness, and I invite the communities of the United States to observe National Mental Health Week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

National Mental Health Week, 1954.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 27th day of April in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-eighth.

MOTHER'S DAY, 1954

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

April 29, 1954
[No. 3052]

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS our mothers are enshrined in our hearts as symbols of those high ideals which have fostered our growth as a great Nation; and

WHEREAS we are wont to unite on one day each year in paying special tribute to our mothers, whose love and care and teaching have guided us in youth and blessed us in maturity; and

WHEREAS the Congress gave formal recognition to that custom by a joint resolution approved May 8, 1914 (38 Stat. 770), which set aside the second Sunday in May of each year as Mother's Day, and requested the President to issue a proclamation calling for the observance of that day:

36 USC 142.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do hereby request that Sunday, May 9, 1954, be observed as Mother's Day; and I direct the appropriate officials of the Government to arrange for the display of the flag of the United States on all Government buildings on that day.

Mother's Day, 1954.

I also call upon the people generally to display the flag at their homes or other suitable places, as an expression of love for their own mothers and reverence for the mothers of our country.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the city of Washington this 29th day of April, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-four, and of the [SEAL] Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-eighth.

TERMINATION OF URUGUAYAN TRADE AGREEMENT PROCLAMATIONS

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

April 30, 1954
[No. 3053]

19 USC 1351a.

19 USC 1352 (c).

WHEREAS, under the authority vested in him by section 350 (a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended by the act of June 12, 1934, entitled "An Act to amend the Tariff Act of 1930" (48 Stat. 943), the time within which the President was authorized to enter into trade agreements pursuant to such amending act having been extended for three years from June 12, 1940, by the joint resolution of Congress approved April 12, 1940 (54 Stat. 107), the President of the United States entered into a trade agreement with the President of the Oriental Republic of Uruguay on July 21, 1942 (56 Stat. 1626), and proclaimed such trade agreement by proclamations of November 10, 1942 (56 Stat. 1624), and December 3, 1942 (56 Stat. 1681); and

WHEREAS, pursuant to an agreement reached by the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Oriental Republic of Uruguay providing for the termination of the said trade agreement, such trade agreement ceased to have effect on December 28, 1953; and 19 USC 1351a.

WHEREAS the said section 350 (a) of the Tariff Act of 1930 authorizes the President to terminate in whole or in part any proclamation carrying out a trade agreement entered into under such section:

Uruguayan trade agreement proclamations.

Termination.

19 USC 1351a.

56 Stat. 1624, 1681.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the statutes, including the said section 350 (a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, do proclaim that the said proclamations dated November 10, 1942, and December 3, 1942, are hereby terminated as of December 28, 1953.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 30th day of April, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-four, and of [SEAL] the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-eighth.
