AN ACT
To amend the reclamation laws to provide that excess lands acquired by foreclosure or inheritance may receive water temporarily for five years.

July 11, 1956

43 U.S.C. 423e.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 46 of the Omnibus Adjustment Act of May 25, 1926 (44 Stat. 649; 43 U.S.C. 423 (e)) is amended by adding thereto after the words “land involved in such fraudulent sales:” and before the words “Provided further” the following: “Provided, however, That if excess land is acquired by foreclosure or other process of law, by conveyance in satisfaction of mortgages, by inheritance, or by devise, water therefor may be furnished temporarily for a period not exceeding five years from the effective date of such acquisition, delivery of water thereafter ceasing until the transfer thereof to a landowner duly qualified to secure water therefor:”.

Sec. 2. Section 3 of the Act of August 9, 1912 (37 Stat. 266; 43 U.S.C. 544), is amended by deleting that portion reading “but any such excess land acquired at any time in good faith by descent, by will, or by foreclosure of any lien may be held for two years and no longer after its acquisition;” and adding in lieu thereof “but any such excess land acquired by foreclosure or other process of law, by conveyance in satisfaction of mortgages, by inheritance, or by devise, water therefor may be furnished temporarily for five years and no longer after its acquisition, and water may be temporarily furnished during that time;”.

Sec. 3. The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, upon request of any holder of an existing contract under the Federal reclamation laws (Act of June 17, 1902, 32 Stat. 388, and Acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto), to amend the contract to conform to the provisions of sections 1 and 2 of this Act.

AN ACT
To create an academic advisory board for the United States Merchant Marine Academy.

July 11, 1956

46 U.S.C. 1126d.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Public Law 214, Eightieth Congress (61 Stat. 401), be amended to read as follows: “The Secretary of Commerce may appoint an advisory board to the United States Merchant Marine Academy consisting of not more than seven persons of distinction in education and other fields relating to the purposes of the academy, who shall serve without pay. Members of the advisory board shall be appointed for terms of not to exceed three years and may be reappointed. The Secretary of Commerce shall, in June of each year, appoint one of the members to serve as chairman. The members so appointed shall visit the academy at least once during the academic year on the call of the chairman and may convene once each year in Washington, at the call of the Maritime Administrator, for the purpose of examining the course of instruction and the management of the academy and advising the Maritime Administrator, with a copy of such advice to the superintendent, relative thereto. The expenses of the board while engaged in these duties, including the expense of travel, shall be defrayed under Government travel regulations from any appropriation for the authorized work of the Maritime Administration."
