CHAPTER 502

JOINT RESOLUTION

To waive certain provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act in behalf of certain aliens.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding the provision of section 212 (a) (3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Mary Ann Wilkinson may be admitted to the United States for permanent residence if she is found to be otherwise admissible under the provisions of that Act: Provided, That a suitable and proper bond or undertaking, approved by the Attorney General, be deposited as prescribed by section 213 of the said Act.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding the provision of section 212 (a) (9) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Margaretha Gooden, Vittorio Adinolfi, Vincenzo Ciacio, Waltraud Muller Tournay, Walter Oppenheim, Giuseppe Greco, Mrs. Ingeborg Lee, Maria (Henriette) Zagrabowicz, Elli Anna Maria Cirillo, Anthony Barbato, Colin D. Burgess, Meir Tinowitz, Eleonore Blackburn (nee Brenner), and Jill (Wiggett) Varga, may be admitted to the United States for permanent residence if they are found to be otherwise admissible under the provisions of that Act: Provided, That these exemptions shall apply only to grounds for exclusion of which the Department of State or the Department of Justice had knowledge prior to the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 3. In the administration of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Miss Else Widdel, the financee of Technical Sergeant George W. Alvey, a citizen of the United States, shall be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Miss Else Widdel is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to the said Technical Sergeant George W. Alvey and that she is found admissible under the provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act, other than section 212 (a) (9) thereof: Provided further, That this exemption shall apply only to a ground for exclusion of which the Department of State or the Department of Justice had knowledge prior to the enactment of this Act. In the event the marriage between the above-named persons does not occur within three months after the entry of the said Miss Else Widdel, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 242 and 243 of the Immigration and Nationality Act. In the event that the marriage between the above-named persons shall occur within three months after the entry of the said Miss Else Widdel, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of the said Miss Else Widdel as of the date of the payment by her of the required visa fee.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 212 (a) (9) and (12) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Simone Sakey may be admitted to the United States for permanent residence if she is found to be otherwise admissible under the provisions of that Act: Provided, That these exemptions shall apply only to grounds for exclusion of which the Department of State or the Department of Justice had knowledge prior to the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 212 (a) (9) and (19) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Mrs. Hanum Nigogosbayan may be admitted to the United States for permanent residence if she is found to be otherwise admissible under the provisions of that Act: Provided, That these exemptions shall apply only to grounds for exclusion of which the Department of State or the Department of Justice had knowledge prior to the enactment of this Act.

Approved July 2, 1956.
