CHAPTER 701

July 24, 1956
[H. R. 1403]

AN ACT

For the relief of Anthony J. Varca, Junior.

Anthony J. Var-ca, Jr.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Anthony J. Varca, Junior, of Brooklyn, New York, is hereby relieved of all liability to refund the sum of $1,057.69 to the United States because of alleged erroneous hiring at the maximum step-in-grade whereas interdepartmental regulations seem to dictate the minimum step-in-grade while he was employed by Military Sea Transportation Service, Atlantic Area, Department of the Navy, during the period July 18, 1952, to May 27, 1954. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amount of such overpayment. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Anthony J. Varca, Junior, a sum equal to the aggregate of any amounts which may have been paid by him, or withheld from amounts otherwise due him, in complete or partial satisfaction of the claim of the United States for the refund of such overpayment.

Approved July 24, 1956.

[H. R. 1535]

AN ACT

For the relief of Cabrillo Land Company, of San Diego, California.

Cabrillo Land
Co.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Cabrillo Land Company, of San Diego, California, the sum of $2,756, in full satisfaction of all claims against the United States for payment for petroleum products delivered by said Cabrillo Land Company to the Bureau of Reclamation, United States Department of the Interior, and as reimbursement of moneys withheld from Cabrillo Land Company by the United States: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved July 24, 1956.

CHAPTER 703

AN ACT

For the relief of Charles A. Barron.

July 24, 1956
[H. R. 3733]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Charles A. Barron, Rising Sun, Maryland, is hereby relieved of all liability to refund to the United States the sum of $864.96. Such sum represents the amount of overpayment of basic compensation received in good faith by him from the United States as a result of his indefinite appointment on December 10, 1951, in contravention of existing law and regulations, to the position of ordnance inspector (general), grade GS-7, Office of the Naval Inspector of Ordnance, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amount of such overpayment. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Charles A. Barron a sum equal to the aggregate of any amounts which may have been paid by him, or withheld from amounts otherwise due him, in complete or partial satisfaction of the claim of the United States for the refund of such overpayment.

Charles A. Barron.

Approved July 24, 1956.

CHAPTER 704

AN ACT

For the relief of Onie Hack.

July 24, 1956
[H. R. 3987]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Onie Hack, Mount Clemens, Michigan, the sum of $352.48. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of the said Onie Hack against the United States for payment of wages due him on account of services performed in 1951 as an employee of the Inland Waterways Corporation. Payment of such wages was denied the said Onie Hack because of the fact that, on August 23, 1951, he was involved in a work stoppage on the steamer Illinois (a vessel owned by such Corporation) which allegedly constituted a strike against the United States: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Onie Hack.

Approved July 24, 1956.
