[S. 1893]

AN ACT

For the relief of Harold D. Robison.

Harold D. Robison.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Harold D. Robison, of Pleasant Grove, Utah, the sum of $8,865.35. Such sum shall be in full satisfaction of his claim against the United States for additional compensation for the loss of clothing, household furnishings, and other personal property sustained by him, while serving as an employee of the State Department, as the result of the emergency evacuation of State Department personnel, due to enemy action, from Singapore, on February 12, 1942: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
