[H. J. Res. 637]

JOINT RESOLUTION

To waive certain subsections of section 212 (a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act in behalf of certain aliens.

Giuseppe Staropoli and Rosario Pecoraro.
66 Stat. 182.
8 USC 1182.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding the provision of section 212 (a) (9) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Giuseppe Staropoli and Rosario Pecoraro may be issued visas and admitted to the United States for permanent residence if they are found to be otherwise admissible under the provisions of that Act.

Betti O. Bollmann.
8 USC 1101 note.

SEC. 2. In the administration of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Miss Betti O. Bollmann, the fiancée of Sergeant Edward J. Dorpinghaus, a citizen of the United States, shall be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Betti O. Bollmann is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to the said Edward J. Dorpinghaus and that she is otherwise admissible under the immigration laws, other than the provision of section 212 (a) (9) of the said Act. In the event that the marriage between the above-named persons does not occur within three months after the entry of the said Betti O. Bollmann, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 242 and 243 of the Immigration and Nationality Act. In the event the marriage between the above-named persons shall occur within three months after the entry of the said Betti O. Bollmann, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of the said Betti O. Bollmann as of the date of the payment by her of the required visa fee.
