For the relief of Justin G. Maile and Theodore R. Hilbig.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the persons enumerated below the sums specified, in full settlement of all claims against the Government of the United States, as reimbursement for personal effects destroyed as the result of a fire which occurred on October 12, 1953, at the Alaska Road Commission's East Fork Bridge construction camp, Mount McKinley National Park, Alaska: Justin G. Maile, $401.60; and Theodore R. Hilbig, $546.65.

SEC. 2. No part of the amounts appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with these claims, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved May 10, 1956.

For the relief of Charles F. Brickell.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $862.22 to Charles F. Brickell, 2250 East Chapman, Fullerton, California. Said sum shall be in full settlement of all claims against the United States of the said Charles F. Brickell for personal property which was lost in a fire which occurred on December 25, 1953, at Telford's Warehouse in Sun Valley, California, for which he has not been heretofore compensated: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved May 10, 1956.

For the relief of Bernard L. Denn.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Bernard L. Denn, of Portland, Oregon, the sum of $2,443.57. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of the claim of said Bernard L. Denn, an employee of Bonneville Power Administration, Department of the Interior, against the United States for retroactive pay adjustment to reimburse him for loss resulting from administrative error: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved May 10, 1956.

F. Delizia Company, Inc.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the F. Delizia Company, Incorporated, Springfield, Massachusetts, the sum of $100. Such sum, together with the indemnity of $100 already received by such company, shall be in full settlement of all claims of such company against the United States for damages resulting from the loss in the United States mails of a package belonging to such company which the schedule of insurance fees incorrectly showed to have been insured for $200 but which, because of a recent change in rates not reflected in such schedule, was actually insured for only $100: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved May 10, 1956.

Stanley Rydzon and Alexander F. Anderson.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Stanley Rydzon and Alexander F. Anderson are hereby relieved of all liability to refund to the United States the sums of $2,074.50 and $1,550.25, respectively. Such sums represent compensation received by the persons aforesaid as employees of the United States Post Office, San Antonio, Texas, during the periods July 1, 1950, to April 15, 1953, and April 9, 1951, to March 31, 1953, respectively, all dates inclusive, while they were also employed by the General Services Administration and each was receiving dual compensation from the United States at a combined annual rate in excess of $2,000. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amounts for which liability is relieved by the Act.
