[S. 1970]

AN ACT

For the Relief of Kim Boksoon and Anke Naber.

Kim Boksoon.
66 Stat. 163.
8 USC 1101 note.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, in the administration of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Kim Boksoon, the fiancée of Alexander Adams, Junior, a citizen of the United States, shall be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Kim Boksoon is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to the said Alexander Adams, Junior, and that she is otherwise admissible under the Immigration and Nationality Act. In the event the marriage between the above-named persons does not occur within three months after the entry of the said Kim Boksoon, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act. In the event that the marriage between the above-named persons shall occur within three months after the entry of the said Kim Boksoon, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of the said Kim Boksoon as of the date of the payment by her of the required visa fee.

SEC. 2. In the administration of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Anke Naber, the fiancée of First Lieutenant Jack B. Stewart, United States Air Force, a citizen of the United States, shall be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Anke Naber is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to the said Jack B. Stewart and that she is found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. In the event the marriage between the above-named persons does not occur within three months after the entry of the said Anke Naber, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 242 and 243 of the Immigration and Nationality Act. In the event that the marriage between the above-named persons shall occur within three months after the entry of the said Anke Naber, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of the said Anke Naber as of the date of the payment by her of the required visa fee.
