the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to the said Hans Jahnke and that she is found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws, other than the provision of section 212 (a) (4) of the said Act: Provided further, That a suitable and proper bond or undertaking, approved by the Attorney General, be deposited as prescribed by section 213 of the said Act. In the event the marriage between the above-named persons does not occur within three months after the entry of the said Charlotte Muhlefeldt, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 242 and 243 of the Immigration and Nationality Act. In the event that the marriage between the above-named persons shall occur within three months after the entry of the said Charlotte Muhlefeldt, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of the said Charlotte Muhlefeldt as of the date of the payment by her of the required visa fee.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding the provision of section 212 (a) (9) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, John Joon Sik Chung, Cesare Picco, Regina M. Knight, Jenny Antoinette V. Ingrum, and Paula Edith Reynolds may be issued visas and admitted to the United States for permanent residence if they are found to be otherwise admissible under the provisions of that Act.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding the provision of section 212 (a) (19) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Eric A. Cummings may be issued a visa and admitted to the United States for permanent residence if he is found to be otherwise admissible under the provisions of that Act.

SEC. 6. The exemptions provided for in this Act shall apply only to grounds for exclusion of which the Department of State or the Department of Justice had knowledge prior to the enactment of this Act.

Approved June 7, 1956.

Private Law 688

CHAPTER 387

For the relief of Clement E. Sprouse.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of funds of the District of Columbia, to Clement E. Sprouse, of Cabin John, Maryland, the sum of $244.31. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of the said Clement E. Sprouse against the United States on account of damage to his car on February 4, 1954, as a result of its being struck at Massachusetts Avenue and Westmoreland Circle in the District of Columbia by a motorcycle operated by a member of the Metropolitan Police Department of the District of Columbia: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved June 13, 1956.
