AN ACT

For the relief of Clarence L. Harris.

Clarence L.
Harris.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $204.73 to Clarence L. Harris, of Little Rock, Arkansas, in full settlement of all claims against the United States. Such sum represents a refund of alleged excess cost in connection with the return of his household goods from Tripoli, Libya, North Africa, to Little Rock, Arkansas, pursuant to official travel orders directing permanent change of station during the month of September 1954: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
