NATIONAL JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT WEEK

Whereas it was the initiative, the sense of individual dignity, and the determination to mold their own futures that motivated those who founded this Nation; and

Whereas Junior Achievement, Incorporated, through its "learn-by-doing" program is inculcating those ideals in American youth by helping them to set up and operate their own small-scale business enterprises; and

Whereas their experience in running Junior Achievement companies will provide these young people with a heightened understanding of the privileges and duties of citizenship and better prepare them to assume the responsibilities of community leadership; and

Whereas thousands of American businessmen voluntarily give unstintingly of their time, their counsel, and their experience for the benefit of the members of Junior Achievement; and

Whereas it is understood that the week beginning January 27, 1957, and ending February 2, 1957, will be observed as National Junior Achievement Week: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the President of the United States is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation designating the week of January 27, 1957, through February 2, 1957, as National Junior Achievement Week and urging all citizens of our country to salute the activities of Junior Achievers and their volunteer adult advisers through appropriate ceremonies.

Passed January 17, 1957.

National Junior
Achievement
Week.

CHAPLAINS OF THE DORCHESTER

Whereas the Army transport Dorchester was sunk by enemy action off the coast of Greenland on February 3, 1943; and

Whereas four Army chaplains of different religious faiths—George L. Fox, of Gilman, Vermont, Methodist; Alexander D. Goode, of

York, Pennsylvania, Jewish; Clark V. Poling, of Schenectady, New York, Reformed Church in America; and John P. Washington, of Newark, New Jersey, Roman Catholic—lost their lives in the sinking of such vessel while heroically serving their comrades and their country; and

Whereas each of these men was awarded posthumously the Distinguished Service Cross for services rendered to his country above and beyond his prescribed duty; and

Whereas the conduct of these heroic chaplains and other brave men who died on the Dorchester will forever be an inspiring example of courageous and unselfish devotion to God and to Country; and

Whereas Sunday, February 3, 1957, is the fourteenth anniversary of this great tragedy of World War II and will be observed by the American Legion as a day dedicated "To God and Country": Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the third day of February 1957 be observed as a day dedicated to the memory of the heroic conduct of George L. Fox, Alexander D. Goode, Clark V. Poling, and John P. Washington, the Army chaplains and other brave men who lost their lives in the sinking of the Army transport Dorchester on February 3, 1943.

Chaplains of the
Dorchester.

Proclamation.

SEC. 2. The President of the United States is requested to issue a proclamation calling upon officials of the Government to display the flag of the United States on all Government buildings on the third day of February 1957, and inviting the people of the United States to observe such day in churches, or other suitable places, with appropriate ceremonies, in commemoration of the deaths and the heroic act of the four chaplains and other brave men who lost their lives on the Dorchester.

Passed January 30, 1957.
