

IMPOSING A QUOTA ON BUTTER SUBSTITUTES, INCLUDING BUTTER OIL

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

April 15, 1957
[No. 3178]

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, pursuant to section 22 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended (7 U. S. C. 624), the Secretary of Agriculture advised me that there was reason to believe that butter substitutes, including butter oil, containing 45 per centum or more of butterfat, which are dutiable under paragraph 709 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, are practically certain to be imported into the United States under such conditions and in such quantities as to render or tend to render ineffective, or materially interfere with, the price-support program undertaken by the Department of Agriculture with respect to milk and butterfat, or to reduce substantially the amount of products processed in the United States from domestic milk and butterfat with respect to which such program of the Department of Agriculture is being undertaken; and 62 Stat. 1248.

46 Stat. 632.
19 USC 1001, par.
709.

WHEREAS on November 17, 1956, under the authority of the said section 22, I caused the United States Tariff Commission to make an investigation with respect to this matter; and

7 USC 624.

WHEREAS, in accordance with the said section 22, as implemented by Executive Order No. 7233 of November 23, 1935, the said Tariff Commission has made such investigation and has reported to me its findings and recommendations made in connection therewith; and

WHEREAS, on the basis of the said investigation and report of the Tariff Commission, I find that butter substitutes, including butter oil, containing 45 per centum or more of butterfat and classifiable under paragraph 709 of the Tariff Act of 1930 are practically certain to be imported into the United States under such conditions and in such quantities as to materially interfere with the said price-support program with respect to milk and butterfat, and to reduce substantially the amount of products processed in the United States from domestic milk and butterfat with respect to which said price-support program is being undertaken; and

19 USC 1001, par.

WHEREAS I find and declare that the imposition of the quantitative limitations hereinafter proclaimed is shown by such investigation of the said Tariff Commission to be necessary in order that the entry, or withdrawal from warehouse, for consumption of such butter substitutes, including butter oil, will not materially interfere with the said price-support program or reduce substantially the amount of products processed in the United States from domestic milk and butterfat with respect to which the said price-support program is being undertaken:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the said section 22 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, do hereby proclaim that the total aggregate quantity of butter substitutes, including butter oil, containing 45 per centum or more of butterfat and classifiable under paragraph 709 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, which shall be permitted to be entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption during calendar year 1957, shall not exceed 1,800,000 pounds, and that the total aggregate quantity of such articles which shall be permitted to be entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption during the calendar year 1958 and each subsequent calendar year shall not exceed 1,200,000 pounds. The specified quantities of the named articles which may be entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption are not proportionately less than 50 per centum of the total quantities of such Butter substitutes.

Import quota.

7 USC 624.

19 USC 1001, par.
709.

articles entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption during the representative period from January 1, 1956, to December 31, 1956, inclusive.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this fifteenth day of April in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, and of the [SEAL] Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-first.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

CHRISTIAN A. HERTER,
Acting Secretary of State.

NATIONAL MENTAL HEALTH WEEK

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS mental illness is a major health concern of the Nation, and the care of the mentally ill presents grave problems; and

WHEREAS preventive and control programs can do much to alleviate mental and emotional disorders through early detection, diagnosis, and treatment; and

WHEREAS the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare conducts or supports broad programs of mental-health research, training, and community services, including the dissemination of newly gained knowledge and its application; and

WHEREAS State and local governments are developing extensive mental-health activities, including research and training programs; and

WHEREAS mental-health societies and voluntary and professional organizations throughout the country are working to increase public knowledge about mental illness and the best means of combating it; and

WHEREAS the work of these organizations, and the mental-health funds which they are raising through public subscription, deserve the generous support of us all; and

WHEREAS Senate Joint Resolution 70 of the 85th Congress, 1st Session, approved April 20, 1957, requests the President of the United States to issue a proclamation designating the week beginning April 28 and ending May 4, 1957, as National Mental Health Week:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate the week beginning Sunday, April 28, 1957, as National Mental Health Week. I urge the people throughout the Nation to cooperate in the fight for the prevention, treatment, and cure of mental illness; and I invite the communities of the United States to observe National Mental Health Week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 20th day of April in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, and of the [SEAL] Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-first.
