(d) The members of the Crow Tribe of Indians of Montana shall be permitted to hunt and fish in and on the Yellowtail Reservoir and taking area without a license.

Sec. 3. Unless suit is brought by the Crow Tribe in the United States District Court for the District of Montana or the Court of Claims within three years after the effective date of this joint resolution to determine whether an amount additional to that specified in section 1 hereof is due as just compensation, the sum provided by section 1 hereof shall be deemed to constitute full, complete, and final settlement of any and all claims by the tribe on account of the transfer to the United States as therein provided of the tribe’s right, title, and interest in and to the lands referred to in section 2 hereof, including claims based on their power site and dam site values. In the event a suit to determine just compensation is so brought, either of said courts shall have jurisdiction as under section 1505, title 28, United States Code, and in determining just compensation shall take into account the rights reserved to the tribe by subsections (b), (c), and (d) of section 2 hereof and shall, if judgment be for the tribe, deduct from the amount thereof the sum specified in and paid under section 1 of this joint resolution. Review of the judgment shall be in the same manner, and subject to the same limitations, as govern in the case of other claims cognizable under the aforementioned section 1505. Nothing contained in this joint resolution shall be taken as an admission on the part of the United States that just compensation is required for any particular element of value, including power site and dam site value, now or hereafter claimed by the Crow Tribe, but the same shall be determined in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the United States.
