Private Law 85-599

AN ACT
For the relief of Annunziata Gambini and Tomazo Gambini.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding the limitations of time contained in section 33 of the Trading With the Enemy Act, as amended, with respect to the filing of claims and the institution of suits for the return of property or any interest therein pursuant to sections 9 or 32 of such Act, Annunziata Gambini and Tomazo Gambini, both nationals of Italy, may, within six months after the date of enactment of this Act, file a claim or institute a suit for the return, pursuant to section 9 or 32 of such Act, of all real and personal property formerly owned by them (including the accumulated revenues derived therefrom) in the city of Galveston, Texas, which property was covered by and vested in the Alien Property Custodian for the benefit of the United States by vesting order numbered 1751, dated June 25, 1943. Any such claim or suit shall be received, considered, and determined as if such claim or suit had been filed within the time limitations prescribed in section 33 of such Act. Any return made pursuant to authority conferred by this Act shall be subject to the provisions of section 20 of the Trading With the Enemy Act.

Approved August 18, 1958.

AN ACT
To validate the conveyance of certain land in the State of California by the Central Pacific Railway Company and the Southern Pacific Company to D'Arrigo Bros. Co. of California.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, subject to section 3 of this Act, the conveyance executed by the Central Pacific Railway Company and the Southern Pacific Company, and described in section 2 of this Act, involving certain land in the city of Lodi, county of San Joaquin, State of California, forming a part of the right-of-way granted by the United States to the Central Pacific Railway Company by the Act of July 1, 1862 (12 Stat. 489), as amended by the Act of July 2, 1864 (13 Stat. 356), is hereby legalized, validated, and confirmed, as far as the interest of the United States is concerned, with the same force and effect as if the land involved therein had been held by the Central Pacific Railway Company and the Southern Pacific Company at the time of such conveyance under absolute fee simple title.

Sec. 2. The conveyance referred to in the first section of this Act was made by the Central Pacific Railway Company and the Southern Pacific Company, grantors, to D'Arrigo Bros. Co., of California, a California corporation, grantee, and was recorded on October 1, 1956, in book 1906, at page 332, in the office of the County Recorder of San Joaquin County, California, under recorder's serial number 37272.

Sec. 3. (a) Nothing contained in this Act is intended or shall be construed to—

(1) diminish the right-of-way referred to in the first section of this Act to a width less than fifty feet on either side of the center of the main track or tracks of the Central Pacific Railway Company and the Southern Pacific Company as established and maintained on the date of enactment of this Act; nor

(2) legalize, validate, or confirm any right, title, or interest in and to the land referred to in the first section of this Act arising out of adverse possession, prescription, or abandonment, and not confirmed by conveyance made by the Central Pacific Railway Company and the Southern Pacific Company before the date of enactment of this Act.

(b) There is hereby reserved to the United States all oil, coal, or other minerals in the land referred to in the first section of this Act, together with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe.

Approved August 18, 1958.
