Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, for the purposes of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Franz Oberschall, and Antonio Tovers Ramos shall be held and considered to have been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence as of the date of the enactment of this Act, upon payment of the required visa fees. Upon the granting of permanent residence to each alien as provided for in this section of this Act, if such alien was classifiable as a quota immigrant at the time of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State shall instruct the proper quota-control officer to reduce by one the quota for the quota area to which the alien is chargeable for the first year that such quota is available.

SEC. 2. For the purposes of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Desmond Bryan Boylan, Erminia Pisotti and Maria Eustolia Cantu Holguin shall be held and considered to have been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence as of the date of the enactment of this Act, upon payment of the required visa fees: Provided, That, unless the beneficiaries are entitled to care under the Dependents' Medical Care Act (70 Stat. 250), suitable and proper bonds or undertakings, approved by the Attorney General, be deposited as prescribed by section 213 of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

SEC. 3. The Attorney General is authorized and directed to cancel any outstanding orders and warrants of deportation, warrants of arrest, and bonds, which may have issued in the cases of Ramon Rodriguez and Pedro Flores-Carrillo.

SEC. 4. (a) Upon the expiration of two years immediately following their coming to the United States pursuant to section 212 (d) (5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Bogdan Biskupski, Eugeniusz Debski, Karol Kruk and Leszek Szachogluchowicz shall be inspected and examined for admission into the United States in accordance with the provisions of sections 235, 236, and 237 of that Act.

Bogdan Biskupski and others.
8 USC 1182.

8 USC 1225,
1226, 1227.

(b) Any alien who, pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, is found, upon inspection by an immigration officer or after hearing before a special inquiry officer, to have been and to be admissible as an immigrant at the time of his arrival in the United States and at the time of his inspection and examination, except for the fact that he was not and is not in possession of the documents required by section 212 (a) (20) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, shall be regarded as lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence as of the date of his arrival.

8 USC 1182.

(c) Nothing contained in this section shall be held to repeal, amend, alter, modify, affect, or restrict the powers, duties, functions, or authority of the Attorney General in the administration and enforcement of the Immigration and Nationality Act or any other law relating to immigration, nationality, or naturalization.

SEC. 5. For the purposes of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Chee Loy, Ku-Yung Pao, Lillian Tsai Pao, Joan Pao, Minn Pao, and Kwie Ding Wang shall be held and considered to have been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence as of the date of the enactment of this Act. The number of refugees to whom permanent residence in the United States may be granted under the provisions of section 6 of the Refugee Relief Act of 1953, as amended, is hereby reduced by six.
