response to H. Res. 814, Eighty-first Congress, second session (Congressional Number 17865, decided March 2, 1954), in full settlement of their claims against the United States as a result of having lost their business by reason of an overexpansion of its facilities urged and encouraged by the War Department of the United States in anticipation of the requirements of the projected wartime wooden aircraft program and the subsequent abandonment of that program by the War Department before amortization could be effected: Provided, That no part of the amounts appropriated in this Act in excess of 25 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with these claims, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved September 2, 1958.

Private Law 85-753

AN ACT
For the relief of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Metzgar.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Comptroller General of the United States is hereby authorized and directed to relieve Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Metzgar of 984 Boulevard Street, Akron, Ohio, of the liability to pay to the United States Army the sum of $885.37. Such sum represents the overpayment of class Q allotments from July 1955 to April 1956 and overpayment of accrued leave pay and allowances at discharge on April 21, 1956.

AN ACT
For the relief of James McGuire.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $154.36 to James McGuire, of Brooklyn, New York, in full settlement of all claims against the United States. Such sum represents payments deducted from his salary while working for the Brooklyn Conservatory of Music for the period beginning January 1, 1949, and ending December 31, 1952. The Brooklyn Conservatory of Music being a nonprofit educational organization was not covered by the Social Security Act during this period: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
