For the relief of the estate of A. A. Alexander.

September 2, 1958
[H. R. 9262]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $1,131.50 to the estate of A. A. Alexander, of Des Moines, Iowa, in full settlement of all claims against the United States resulting from damage done to furniture and household goods while being shipped from the Territory of the Virgin Islands to the United States upon Mr. Alexander's resignation as Governor of the Territory. The claim of the estate of A. A. Alexander is not a claim which is cognizable under the Federal Tort Claims Act: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

A. A. Alexander,
estate.62 Stat. 982.
28 USC 2671 et seq.
