AN ACT
For the relief of Chiyoko Yoshimoto.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, in the administration of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Chiyoko Yoshimoto, the fiancée of Theodore T. Oyler, a citizen of the United States, shall be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Chiyoko Yoshimoto is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to the said Theodore T. Oyler and that she is found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. In the event the marriage between the above-named persons does not occur within three months after the entry of the said Chiyoko Yoshimoto, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 242 and 243 of the Immigration and Nationality Act. In the event that the marriage between the above-named persons shall occur within three months after the entry of the said Chiyoko Yoshimoto, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of the said Chiyoko Yoshimoto as of the date of the payment by her of the required visa fee.

For the relief of Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Scoppettuolo.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Scoppettuolo of Belleville, New Jersey, the sum of $1,540. Payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of the said Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Scoppettuolo against the United States by reason of the expenses incurred by them in making a visit to the United States Military Cemetery St. Laurent (Normandy), France. The Department of the Army had erroneously informed them that their son, Private First Class James V. Scoppettuolo, was buried there: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved September 6, 1958.
