tofore made available for the eradication of the disease vesicular exanthema in swine, to Valleydale Packers, Incorporated, of Bristol, Virginia, the sum of $2,569.91, an amount equal to that heretofore paid to Valleydale Packers, Incorporated, by the State of Virginia. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of Valleydale Packers, Incorporated, against the United States arising out of the destruction of swine at its plant in Bristol, Virginia, in January 1953, because of the infection and exposure of these swine to the contagious disease, vesicular exanthema. Such swine were destroyed by order of the Department of Agriculture of the State of Virginia, cooperating with the United States Department of Agriculture, under an agreement whereby such losses were to be indemnified on the basis of 50 per centum by the State and 50 per centum by the United States: Provided, That no part of the amount paid to Valleydale Packers, Incorporated, under authority of this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

AN ACT

For the relief of James R. Martin and others.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the following disbursing officers and former disbursing officers of the United States Navy the amounts listed opposite their names. The amounts listed represent moneys paid from their personal funds to liquidate deficiencies incurred in their accounts, which deficiencies were not as a result of bad faith or lack of due care on their part:
For the relief of Doctor Thomas B. Meade.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of funds of the District of Columbia, to Doctor Thomas B. Meade, of Brooklyn, New York, the sum of $159.87. Such sum represents reimbursement to the said Doctor Thomas B. Meade for repairing, at his own cost, his automobile which was damaged while being towed by the Metropolitan Police Department of the District of Columbia, on September 10, 1954: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
