Private Law 85-425

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Lloyd C. King, of East Braintree, Massachusetts, the sum of $1,000. The payment of such sum shall be in full satisfaction of all claims of the said Lloyd C. King against the United States for compensation for personal injuries and loss of earnings sustained by him, and reimbursement of hospital, medical, and other expenses incurred by him, as a result of his being struck by a United States Navy vehicle in Boston, Massachusetts, on March 18, 1949: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

AN ACT
For the relief of Barbara Hollinger.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding the provisions of section 212 (a) (6) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Barbara Hollinger, if found to be otherwise admissible under the provisions of that Act, be issued a visa and admitted to the United States for permanent residence if she is found to be otherwise admissible under the provisions of that Act under such conditions and controls as the Attorney General, after consultation with the Surgeon General of the United States Public Health Service, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, may deem necessary to impose: Provided, That suitable and proper bond or under­takings, approved by the Attorney General, be deposited as prescribed by section 213 of the said Act: And provided further, That this exemption shall apply only to a ground for exclusion of which the Department of State or the Department of Justice has knowledge prior to the enactment of this Act.

JOINT RESOLUTION
For the relief of certain aliens.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, for the purposes of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Lillian Schaffer shall be held and considered to have been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence as of the date of the enactment of this Act, upon payment of the required visa fee: Provided, That a suitable and proper bond or undertaking, approved by the Attorney General be deposited as prescribed by section 213 of that Act.

SEC. 2. For the purposes of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Ellen Yuin-Shang Chung Au, Mosche Davidovitz, Frieda Davidovitz, Theodore Elie Hadjithomas, Mabel Dorothy Hoffman (Clarke), Jahangir Afkhami Mohajer, Fatima Afkhami Mohajer, Frantisek Hanisko, Mrs. Young Chong How, Chu Fung Lau, and Shu-Yuan Yen (Jane Yen) shall be held and considered to have been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence as of the date of the enactment of this Act, upon payment of the required visa fees.
Upon the granting of permanent residence to each alien as provided for in this section of this Act, if such alien was classifiable as a quota immigrant at the time of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State shall instruct the proper quota-control officer to reduce by one the quota for the quota area to which the alien is chargeable for the first year that such quota is available.
