AN ACT

For the relief of Lloyd C. King.

Lloyd C. King.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Lloyd C. King, of East Braintree, Massachusetts, the sum of $1,000. The payment of such sum shall be in full satisfaction of all claims of the said Lloyd C. King against the United States for compensation for personal injuries and loss of earnings sustained by him, and reimbursement of hospital, medical, and other expenses incurred by him, as a result of his being struck by a United States Navy vehicle in Boston, Massachusetts, on March 18, 1949: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding.
