AN ACT

For the relief of Major Harold J. O'Connell.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $2,927.86 to Major Harold J. O'Connell, of Colorado Springs, Colorado, in full settlement of all claims against the United States. Such sum represents expenses incurred by him in the treatment of his son, Michael W. O'Connell, who was shot by his brother and taken to the Memorial Hospital, Colorado Springs, Colorado, for emergency operation and not being transportable to a military installation, on May 29, 1956: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

For the relief of the Harmo Tire and Rubber Corporation.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the Harmo Tire and Rubber Corporation the sum of $8,713.52, which sum, together with the $1,125 heretofore paid to said corporation by the United States under the authority of section 501 (b) of Public Law 135, Eighty-second Congress, first session (65 Stat. 364), represents the actual expenses incurred by the said corporation in removing its stock in trade from the land in the vicinity of Wilkins Air Force Station, Ohio, which was taken from it by the United States under the power of eminent domain. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of the said corporation against the United States on account of the condemnation of such land: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
