

WHEREAS the Federation of Malaya was on August 31, 1957, granted independence by the Government of the United Kingdom within the British Commonwealth of Nations; and

8 USC 1151.

8 USC 1151.

WHEREAS the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Commerce, and the Attorney General have reported to the President that in accordance with the duty imposed and the authority conferred upon them by section 201(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, they jointly have made the determination provided for and computed under the provisions of section 201(a) of the said Act, and have fixed, in accordance therewith, an immigration quota for the Federation of Malaya as hereinafter set forth:

Federation of Malaya. Immigration quota.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the aforesaid act of Congress, do hereby proclaim and make known that the annual quota of the quota area hereinafter designated has been determined in accordance with the law to be, and shall be, as follows:

Area No.	Quota area	Quota
89	Federation of Malaya.....	100

66 Stat. 163. 8 USC 1101 note.

66 Stat. c36.

The establishment of an immigration quota for any quota area is solely for the purpose of compliance with the pertinent provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act and is not to be considered as having any significance extraneous to such purpose.

Proclamation No. 2980 of June 30, 1952, entitled "Immigration Quotas", is amended by the addition of the immigration quota for the Federation of Malaya as set forth in this proclamation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

CHRISTIAN A. HERTER,
Acting Secretary of State.

SECOND WORLD METALLURGICAL CONGRESS

October 10, 1957
[No. 3207]

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

71 Stat. 565.

WHEREAS the Congress of the United States, by joint resolution approved August 31, 1957, has extended its official welcome to the overseas metal scientists who will attend the Second World Metallurgical Congress to be held at Chicago, Illinois, from November 2 to November 8, 1957, under the sponsorship of the American Society for Metals; and

WHEREAS the world's growing demand for metal emphasizes the need for the conservation of our present resources and for the discovery and development of new sources of supply; and

WHEREAS the meeting of the Second World Metallurgical Congress will encourage the free exchange of scientific information among the metallurgists of the world and stimulate the search for minerals and for improved techniques in the field of metallurgy; and

WHEREAS the joint resolution requests the President to grant recognition to the World Metallurgical Congress and to the American Society for Metals for its sponsorship of this world gathering of metallurgical scientists, and to call upon officials and agencies of the Government to assist and cooperate with such congress:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do hereby extend recognition to the Second World Metallurgical Congress and commend the American Society for Metals for initiating and sponsoring this meeting. I also extend the welcome of this Government to the Congress and to the scientists attending its proceedings, and I request that all Federal departments and agencies assist and cooperate with the Second World Metallurgical Congress as occasion may warrant.

Second World Metallurgical Congress.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this tenth day of October in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, and [SEAL] of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-second.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

By the President:

CHRISTIAN A. HERTER,
Acting Secretary of State.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT CENTENNIAL YEAR

OCTOBER 27, 1957—OCTOBER 27, 1958

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

October 22, 1957
[No. 3208]

A PROCLAMATION

Theodore Roosevelt loved America with impassioned devotion and served her greatly in public office and as a private citizen. As President of the United States, his name is associated with epochal readjustments in the relations of government and industry, with the policy of conservation which he established, with the building of the Panama Canal, and with the peace that ended the Russo-Japanese War. His appeals to conscience sank deep into the American heart and mind and wrought enduring changes.

A man of rich gifts in many fields, at home alike in the world of books, the world of politics, and in the wild waste spaces where adventure called, he was historian and ranchman, huntsman and naturalist, Rough Rider, preacher, family man, and explorer. His contemporaries cherished him as a two-fisted fighter who loved life, loved people, feared nobody, and was as much at ease with kings as with cowboys, a wielder alike of the winged phrase and of the sledge hammer, a dangerous antagonist, and an unforgetting, unforgettable friend.

Upon us who stand outside the circle of time in which men felt his personal spell, Theodore Roosevelt exercises a different and, perhaps, a deeper power. We see, and claim for our own, the word, the spirit, and the example that survive for us in this teacher of the principles underlying democratic institutions—this summoner to participation in the procedures of free government, adjuring us, as he entreated the men and women of his own time, to accept the responsibilities of free
